CASE MANAGEMENT TRACK DESIGNATION FORM

CIVIL ACTION NO.

Carlos Valentine

VisionQuest National, Ltd., et al.

In accordance with the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan of this court, counsel for plaintiff shall complete a case Management Track Designation Form in all civil cases at the time of filing the complaint and serve a copy on all defendants. (See § 1:03 of the plan set forth on the reverse side of this form.) In the event that a defendant does not agree with the plaintiff regarding said designation, that defendant shall, with its first appearance, submit to the clerk of court and serve on the plaintiff and all other parties, a case management track designation form specifying the track to which that defendant believes the case should be assigned.

SELECT ONE OF THE FOLLOWING CASE MANAGEMENT TRACKS:

(a) Habeas Corpus – Cases brought under 28 U.S.C. §2241 through §2255. ()

(b) Social Security – Cases requesting review of a decision of the Secretary of Health and Human Services denying plaintiff Social Security Benefits ()

(c) Arbitration – Cases required to be designated for arbitration under Local Civil Rule 53.2. ()

(d) Asbestos – Cases involving claims for personal injury or property damage from exposure to asbestos. ()

(e) Special Management – Cases that do not fall into tracks (a) through (d) that are commonly referred to as complex and that need special or intense management by the court. (See reverse side of this form for a detailed explanation of special management cases.) ()

(f) Standard Management – Cases that do not fall into any one of the other tracks. (x)

v.

CIVIL ACTION

NO.

VISIONQUEST NATIONAL, LTD.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF DEFENDANT
VISIONQUEST NATIONAL, LTD.

Defendant, VisionQuest National, LTD., by its attorneys, Deasey, Mahoney & Valentini, LTD., hereby removes the above-captioned action, which is presently in the Court of Common Pleas of Chester County, Pennsylvania, No. 2022-02260-TT, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1441 et seq. and in support thereof states as follows:

1. On April 3, 2022, Plaintiff commenced this action by filing a Writ of Summons against VisionQuest National, LTD. in the Court of Common Pleas of Chester County, Pennsylvania (“the Chester County Action”). A copy of that Writ of Summons is attached as Exhibit “1.”
2. On May 16, 2022, Plaintiff filed his Complaint against VisionQuest National, LTD. in the Chester County action. A copy of Plaintiff’s Complaint is attached as Exhibit “2.”
3. This Notice is being filed within thirty days after VisionQuest National, LTD. received Plaintiffs’ Complaint, and within one year of the institution of Plaintiff’s suit, in compliance with 28 U.S.C. §1446(b).
4. In its Complaint, Plaintiff alleges that he is an adult individual and a resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. (See Exhibit 2, ¶ 5).

5. VisionQuest National, LTD. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Arizona and, alleged in Plaintiff's Complaint, its corporate headquarters office is located at 4400 East Broadway Boulevard Suite 501, Tucson, Arizona.

6. Plaintiff further alleges in his Complaint that VisionQuest National, LTD maintains Pennsylvania corporate headquarters located at 150 East Pennsylvania Suite 430 Downingtown, Pennsylvania. (See Exhibit 2, ¶ 6).

7. However, while VisionQuest previously maintained a facility located at 150 East Pennsylvania Suite 430 Downingtown, Pennsylvania, that facility closed in September 2015, and has remained closed ever since that time. At no time since September 2015 did VisionQuest National, LTD. maintain a corporate headquarters in Downingtown, Pennsylvania. See a copy of the affidavit of Carol Keller is attached as Exhibit "3".

8. In this action, Plaintiff seeks damages as a result of alleged harm caused to Plaintiff by the actions of Defendants employees, agents, staff and/or volunteers. (See Exhibit 2, ¶ 8).

9. In Count I of his Complaint in the Chester County action, Plaintiff alleges that he sustained damages as the direct and proximate result of the carelessness, negligence, and/or recklessness of Defendant VisionQuest National, LTD. In this Count, Plaintiff seeks damages "for an amount in excess of the applicable Arbitration Limits of this County, plus costs and interest for all types of damages legally recoverable including but not limited to compensatory, special, exemplary, and punitive damages."

10. In Count II of his Complaint in the Chester County action, Plaintiff alleges that VisionQuest National, LTD. negligently supervised, hired, and retained its employees which caused Plaintiff to suffer injuries. In this Count, Plaintiff seeks damages "for an amount in excess of the applicable Arbitration Limits of this County, plus costs and interest for all types of damages legally recoverable including but not limited to compensatory, special, exemplary, and punitive damages.”

11. In Count III of his Complaint in the Chester County action, Plaintiff alleges that VisionQuest National, LTD. is liable for the negligent, reckless, careless, and/or intentional conduct of the employees under the theory of vicarious liability, including the doctrine of Respondeat Superior. In this Count, Plaintiff seeks damages “for an amount in excess of the applicable Arbitration Limits of this County, plus costs and interest for all types of damages legally recoverable including but not limited to compensatory, special, exemplary, and punitive damages.”

12. Since the amount in controversy in this case is in excess of $75,000, and because Plaintiff and VisionQuest National, LTD. are domiciliaries of different States, this Court may exercise jurisdiction over this lawsuit pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332.

13. This action may be removed to this Court by VisionQuest National, LTD. pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1441(a) in that this case was initially brought in a state court within the geographical area of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and in that this Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332(a).

14. VisionQuest National, LTD. has given written notice of the filing of this Notice of Removal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1446(d), by filing this Notice of Removal with the Court of Common Pleas of Chester County and by giving written notice to counsel for Plaintiff. A copy of the Praeclipe to File Notice of Removal as filed by VisionQuest National, LTD., is attached as Exhibit “4”. A copy of the Notice to Plaintiff, given by VisionQuest National, LTD., is attached as Exhibit “5”.

WHEREFORE, Defendant VisionQuest National, LTD. respectfully requests that the Chester County action be removed to this Court.

Carlos Valentine (Plaintiff),	:	Chester County Common Pleas Court
v.	:	Civil Division – Jury Trial Demand
VisionQuest National LTD, (Defendant)	:	No. 2022-02260-TT

COMPLAINT

AND NOW come the Plaintiff, Carlos Valentine, via his attorney, David Wesley Cornish, Esquire and Cornerstone Legal Group, files the within Complaint and in support thereof avers the following:

I. Introduction

1. Treatment and rehabilitation centers have an inherent responsibility to maintain honesty, integrity, and inclusiveness within their walls. These treatment facilities perform an important job of taking at-risk youth and guiding them towards a productive future, cultivating senses of hope, friendliness, and enthusiasm that the clients will take with them once they leave the facility.
2. This inherent responsibility is shattered once such a facility fails to maintain such an environment. More emphatically, an even greater evil is committed when the treatment and rehabilitation center play an active and direct role by promoting and allowing reprehensible methods of rehabilitation. These methods, when condoned either by action or inaction by these centers, irreparably harms those at-risk individuals who willingly, or unwillingly, enter into these facilities seeking help.
3. The young, at-risk clients placed under the care of VisionQuest National, LTD (“VisionQuest”), which was a facility operated and staffed by all the named Defendants, who sought treatment and behavioral health services suffered an immeasurable amount of trauma and mistreatment due to the inexcusable culture VisionQuest cultivated, embodied by its employees, staff, agents, contractors, and volunteers.

4. The Plaintiff Valentine brings claims against the above-named Defendant for Respondeat Superior, negligence, negligent hiring, supervision, and retention.

II. Parties

5. Plaintiff, Carlos Valentine is an adult individual and resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
6. Defendant, VisionQuest National LTD with a corporate headquarters office at 4400 East Broadway Boulevard Suite 501 Tucson, AZ 85711 and in Pennsylvania at corporate headquarters 150 East Pennsylvania Avenue, Suite 430 Downingtown, PA 19335.
7. The young, at-risk clients placed under the care of VisionQuest National, LTD, ("VisionQuest") including Plaintiff who sought treatment and behavioral health services suffered an immeasurable amount of trauma and mistreatment due to the inexcusable culture VisionQuest cultivated, embodied by its supervisors, employees, and staff.
8. The above-named Plaintiff brings claims against the above-named Defendant for Respondeat Superior, negligence, and negligent hiring, supervision, and retention.

III. Facts

9. VisionQuest receives "clients" as part of a referral program wherein delinquent youths are legally sent to a specific VisionQuest facility as part of a rehabilitation or treatment process. VisionQuest conducts a Prospective Client Interview which includes the reason for the referral and determines, based on other factors, whether the client is fit for the recommended program. VisionQuest is a treatment center that serves almost exclusively legally referred clients. VisionQuest had numerous facilities across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with a corporate headquarters in Chester County.

Carlos Valentine's Experience

10. Plaintiff was court-ordered to reside at VisionQuest.
11. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff was a victim of sexual abuse during his time at Defendant VisionQuest's facility by its staff members.
12. Plaintiff was housed for classification and assignment purposes to a specific program for a portion of his commitment to VisionQuest at their Chester County facility, near Embreeville, Pennsylvania.
13. Plaintiff avers Defendant knew or should have known that its employee(s) had committed acts of abuse upon one or more of the other residents of its facility(ies) prior to the time that plaintiff herein was subjected to the acts of sexual abuse that are the subject of this filing.
14. Plaintiff describes the following incidents involving sexual assault while he was housed at the Defendant's facility:
 - i. Plaintiff was court ordered to live at VisionQuest at VisionQuest Nationals and VisionQuest South Mountain Camp Charles Young when he was approximately 15-17 years old during approximately 2007-2009.
 - ii. While at Defendant's facility, staff member Captain Hill, grabbed, touched, and fondled Plaintiff's genitals while he was naked in his on-campus residence.
 - iii. Plaintiff was getting changed when Captain Hill grabbed his genitals.
 - iv. Plaintiff did not recall seeing anyone else present when Captain Hill fondled his genitals.

- v. Additionally, Captain Hill fondled Plaintiff's genitals while he was naked and/or underneath his clothing on multiple other occasions.
- vi. Staff member Captain Hill sexually assaulted Plaintiff numerous times and he cannot recall the exact number of instances.
- vii. Staff member Captain Hill would grope Plaintiff's penis and testicles both underneath and outside his clothing during other sexual assaults.
- viii. Plaintiff does not recall the exact dates on which he was fondled and groped underneath his clothing by Captain Hill.
- ix. Plaintiff also was inappropriately touched by numerous other male staff members, including by having his buttocks, penis, and testicles groped on so many occasions as to constitute continuous, and on-going conduct.
- x. Plaintiff was groped by numerous staff members in the guise of searches when Plaintiff was complying with orders and not acting inappropriately.
- xi. Excepting Captain Hill, Plaintiff was otherwise also groped and fondled only on the outside of his clothing.
- xii. Plaintiff does not believe, staff member Captain Hill was ever disciplined, reprimanded, and/or otherwise reported to the appropriate law enforcement authorities for his actions in sexually abusing Plaintiff.
- xiii. There was no legitimate reason for Plaintiff to have his buttocks touched in the manner previously described by any of the staff members.

15. Specifically, regarding staff member(s) Captain Hill it is averred the physical contact made with Plaintiff's genitals was indecent contact for the purpose of arousing the aforementioned individual.

16. The supervisors, employees, administrators, and/or staff members implicated who directly caused the harm to Plaintiff and/or threatened Plaintiff were acting within the scope of their duties as counselors and caretakers to Plaintiff.

17. It is averred Defendant's staff, supervisors, administrators, and employees actively discouraged and prevented disclosure to third-parties about any claims of child abuse against any staff member at any facility operated by the Defendant.

Count 1 – Negligence (Valentine v. VisionQuest)

18. Plaintiff hereby incorporate all preceding paragraphs by reference as if set forth fully herein.

19. The Defendant and its staff members had a duty to report child abuse when a reasonable belief exists it occurred, and the Defendant breached this duty and failed to notify the proper authorities about the Plaintiff's abuse as required by 55 Pa.C.S.A. §3680 et seq; 55 Pa.C.S.A. §3800 et seq; and all other applicable child abuse reporting requirement laws related to mandatory abuse reporters and applicable to Defendant's facility.

20. The damages sustained by Plaintiff Valentine were directly, and proximately caused by the carelessness, negligence, and/or recklessness of the Defendant at the VisionQuest facility in the following particulars:

- a. In failing to maintain a reasonably safe environment for the patients and juveniles of the facility;
- b. In failing to recognize, stop, and deter the employees and staff created an environment where employees and staff were allowed to perform the activities alleged in this pleading;

- c. In allowing staff and employees who Defendant knew or reasonably should have known to be inappropriate to have access to juvenile students and clients who are at-risk and who are in a position of inferiority;
- d. In failing to provide any oversight to the employees or staff given the written reports, complaints, and witnessing of these acts of sexual abuse conducted by supervisors and administrators;
- e. In failing to take proper remedial measures to actively combat allegations of sexual abuse by its employees, staff, or residents despite numerous allegations of such abuse;
- f. In failing to meet the required standards of care of a mental health and juvenile treatment and/or rehabilitation facility pursuant to 55 Pa.C.S.A. §3680 et seq; 55 Pa.C.S.A. §3800 et seq; and all other related child abuse mandatory reporting requirement laws applicable to child residential facilities, while Plaintiff was in its care;
- g. In dismissing legitimate claims of abuse by Plaintiff and other students similarly situated who had been abused in Plaintiff's presence;

21. As the sole, direct, legal, and proximate result of the negligence of Defendant at the VisionQuest facility, as aforesaid, Plaintiff has suffered the following injuries:

- a. Plaintiff's social ability has been injured to the extent that Plaintiff cannot, or has difficulty with maintaining trust of others, forming friendships and relationships, and continues to isolate himself;
- b. Plaintiff was deprived of educational opportunities, by the Defendant and;

22. As the sole, direct, legal, and proximate result of the negligence of Defendant at the

VisionQuest facility, as aforesaid, Plaintiff has suffered the following damages:

- a. Immense on-going embarrassment and humiliation;
- b. Loss of self-esteem and shame;
- c. Emotional distress;
- d. Nightmares, loss of sleep, anxiety and other physical manifestations of the injuries caused by the events described above.
- e. Aggravation and/or exacerbation of pre-existing mental anguish and trauma;
- f. Severe mental anguish and trauma;
- g. Anxiety, depression, nausea and loss of sleep;
- h. A loss of enjoyment of life;
- i. A loss of the ability to form relationships and inability to trust others;
- j. A loss of earnings and earning capacity during those periods Plaintiff was unable to work due to trauma;
- k. Loss of educational opportunities and;

23. This incident was caused solely by the carelessness, negligence, and/or recklessness of

Defendant and Plaintiff's injuries were in no manner or part whatsoever due to any act or failure on part of Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Valentine demands judgement against Defendant, VisionQuest National LTD, for an amount in excess of the applicable Arbitration Limits, plus costs and interest for all types of damages legally recoverable including but not limited to compensatory, special, exemplary, and punitive damages.

Count 2 – Negligent Supervision, Hiring, and Retention (Valentine v. VisionQuest)

24. Plaintiff hereby incorporate all preceding paragraphs by reference as if set forth fully herein.

25. The Defendant and its staff members, supervisors, and administrators had a duty to report child abuse when a reasonable belief exists it occurred, and the Defendant breached this duty and failed to notify the proper authorities about the Plaintiff's abuse as required by 55 Pa.C.S.A. §3680 et seq; 55 Pa.C.S.A. §3800 et seq; and all other applicable child abuse reporting requirement laws related to mandatory abuse reporters and applicable to Defendant's facility.

26. The conduct of the staff during its interactions with the Plaintiff and the actions of the staff against other juvenile students within Plaintiff's view was so outrageous it shocks the conscious.

27. The staff members' conduct, especially Captain Hill, in assaulting Plaintiff Valentine, is so outrageous it shocks the conscious.

28. The Defendant gave improper and/or ambiguous orders and failed to make proper regulations related to investigating, preventing, and reporting child in particular regarding the Plaintiff.

29. The Defendants failed to oversee the activities of numerous staff members, including supervisors, employed by the Defendant.

30. The Defendant permitted and failed to prevent negligent or other tortious conduct by persons, including its staff, upon its premises and with instrumentalities under his control.

31. At all times relevant hereto, all treatment and counseling provided to Plaintiff and supervision of Plaintiff was under the direction and supervision of Defendant

VisionQuest National LTD, acting through its agents, employees, servants, workman, and/or independent contractors, including, but not limited to, counselors.

32. Defendant had a duty to enact and maintain policies, procedures, practices, and/or guidelines (“policies”, collectively) to ensure that juveniles, such as Plaintiff, received the appropriate and necessary treatment from his assigned counselor.
33. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant had a duty to adequately screen, train, supervise, and discipline employees and prospective employees who would be assigned duties wherein they would treat or supervise juveniles, like Plaintiff.
34. The incidents mentioned in the previous paragraphs were due solely or partially to the negligence, carelessness, recklessness, and/or other liability-producing conduct of Defendant in the following particulars:
 - a. In failing to adequately promulgate policies for the screening of prospective and/or hired employees for their fitness to perform treatment to Plaintiff for Defendant and their capacity to use reasonable care to safeguard the health, safety, and welfare of the individuals to whom they were assigned to treat;
 - b. In failing to adequately screen prospective and/or hired employees for their fitness to perform treatment to Plaintiff for Defendant and their capacity to use reasonable care to safeguard the health, safety, and welfare of the individuals to whom they were assigned to treat;
 - c. In failing to adequately promulgate policies for the training of employees hired to treat patients to use reasonable care to safeguard the health, safety, and welfare of the patients to whom they were assigned to provide care;

- d. In failing to adequately supervise employees hired to treat patients as to their use of reasonable care in safeguarding the health, safety, and welfare of the individuals to whom they were assigned to treat;
- e. In failing to adequately discipline employees hired to treat patients as to their use of reasonable care in safeguarding the health, safety, and welfare of the individuals to whom they were assigned to provide care for;
- f. In failing to adequately promulgate and enforce policies so as to prevent the sexual abuse of its patients caused by its own employees, agents, and staff hired to treat clients; and
- g. In failing to have and/or enforce policies, procedures, protocols, or guidelines necessary for the safety of patients such as Plaintiff.

35. As the sole, direct, legal, and proximate result of the negligence of Defendant, as aforesaid, Plaintiff has suffered the injuries aforementioned in the preceding paragraphs.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Valentine demands judgement against Defendant, VisionQuest National LTD, for an amount in excess of the applicable Arbitration Limits, plus costs and interest for all types of damages legally recoverable including but not limited to compensatory, special, exemplary, and punitive damages.

Count 3- Respondent Superior (Valentine v. VisionQuest)

36. Plaintiff hereby incorporate all preceding paragraphs by reference as if set forth fully herein.

37. The Defendant and its staff members had a duty to report child abuse when a reasonable belief exists it occurred, and the Defendant breached this duty and failed to notify the proper authorities about the Plaintiff's abuse as required by 55 Pa.C.S.A. §3680 et seq.; 55

Pa.C.S.A. §3800 et seq.; and all other applicable child abuse reporting requirement laws related to mandatory abuse reporters and applicable to Defendant's facility.

38. At all times relevant hereto, employees and staff members implicated in the prior paragraphs were acting under the exclusive control, direction, and supervision of Defendant when the negligent acts alleged took place.
39. Employees, supervisors, and staff members engaged in the activity described in prior paragraphs while acting in the course and scope of their employment with Defendant by working with the juveniles at the facility.
40. While serving as servants and agents of Defendant, the supervisors, employees, and staff members implicated by the allegations in the prior paragraphs caused the Plaintiff to suffer the child abuse alleged herein by virtue of their job-created authority.
41. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant is liable for the negligent, reckless, careless, and/or intentional conduct of the employees under the theory of vicarious liability, including the doctrine of Respondeat Superior.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Valentine demands judgement against Defendant, VisionQuest National LTD, for an amount in excess of the applicable Arbitration Limits, plus costs and interest for all types of damages legally recoverable including but not limited to compensatory, special, exemplary, and punitive damages.
